Course Overview

This course is designed for people who have a basic knowledge of sewing, but would like to improve their skills and explore creativity and design in more depth.

This course help you to improve your practical skills that can save you money by allowing you to mend and alter clothing instead of replacing or discarding it. This can contribute to sustainability and reduce clothing waste. Learning to sew allows you to express your creativity and individuality. You can personalise your clothing, accessories, and home decor items to reflect your unique style. It can be a calming and meditative activity that reduces stress and promotes relaxation. Sewing classes can be a great way to meet like-minded people and engage with a creative community. Choose your own project and learn at your own pace.

You will learn how to use your own machine and sewing equipment for more detailed and complex techniques and designs.

Please be informed that participants are required to have a sewing box containing essential equipment. Additionally, each participant is responsible for bringing their own sewing machine to the class.

The course will accommodate varied abilities, including beginners.
