Course Overview

This course will help you to develop both your skills and confidence in using British Sign Language.

As the weeks progress, you will learn how to use a range of signs and phrases around familiar social and work situations. This will include being able to sign numerical data, use clear hand signs and appropriate facial expressions.

Course Requirements

Participants are not required to possess any previous knowledge or expertise. We welcome individuals with a genuine enthusiasm for the subject and a willingness to actively engage and contribute.

What You Will Learn

By the end of the programme you will be able to watch and understand simple British Sign Language, ask and answer a range of questions as well as responding confidently to basic statements.

Assessment

Learners will be asked to deliver two short presentations.

Progression

Upon successful completion of this course students can enrol onto further language or employment training. Staff will advise the most appropriate next step.

Career Options

Learning British Sign Language can offer numerous career benefits, from expanded job opportunities to improved communication skills and the personal satisfaction of contributing to the inclusivity of the deaf community. It's a valuable skill that can be applied across various professional settings.

Mandatory Units

Learners must complete three mandatory units in order to achieve the qualifications:

Productive Skills

Receptive Skills

Conversational Skills
